Sixth Annual Marty Aronow Charity Golf Classic

President Joe Caldeira presents a check for $17,064 to Claire Bojus of CAREing for Children

To benefit CAREing for Children

Event Sponsor SERVPRO of Toms River
In 2015, with the untimely passing of our former president, the OCBA board of directors voted to rename our annual golf outing the Marty Aronow Charity Golf Classic to Benefit CAREing for Children. Marty was an exemplary OCBA president (2013-2014) who helped bring to life a golf fundraiser that would support OCBA’s CAREing for Children (CFC)—a 501(c)3 charity.

Last year’s Fifth Annual Golf Classic raised $17,000 for the 2018 holiday season. In the five years this event has been held, we have raised $85,000. Clare Bojus, CFC chairwoman, uses these funds to purchase toys, food boxes, and clothing for underprivileged families and children during the holidays. The distribution of these gifts was an OCBA family event with Barbara Farley and her son, TJ, Dr. Chet Chianese, and Brian Bojus, instrumental in unpacking pallets of toys that were delivered. OCBA member Steve Belitrand aided in arranging pickups of holiday gifts for the charities. The charities we assisted are too numerous to mention here but among them are: DYFS of Toms River and Lakewood, St. Joseph’s Church in Toms River, the Ocean County Sheriff’s Office, Providence House, Salvation Army, O.C.E.A.N. Inc., and Mental Health Associates of NJ.

Because CFC is run strictly on volunteer power and there are no overhead costs, 100 percent of the donations go to support the charity. Likewise, 100 percent of the Golf Classic net proceeds (after golf-course expenditures) are funneled directly to CFC.

Because CFC is run strictly on volunteer power and there are no overhead costs, 100 percent of the donations go to support the charity. Likewise, 100 percent of the Golf Classic net proceeds (after golf-course expenditures) are funneled directly to CFC.

As you can see, this cause is close to our collective heart and one that, we hope you agree, is worth your time, money, and effort. We’re optimistic that this year’s Classic will surpass last year’s very successful event—and help even more people in our community.

Thank you for joining us and enjoy the day.
