Christopher Christie to Receive “Champion of the Year” Award from Ocean County Business Assn.

Harry Jay Levin, a board member of the Ocean County Business Association (OCBA) and a partner in LevinCyphers Attorneys at Law, Toms River, is presenting the first annual “Champion of the Year” award to Christopher Christie, the former U.S. Attorney for District of New Jersey who is the Republican candidate for Governor of New Jersey, Thursday, August 6, 2009, 11:30 a.m. at the Quality Inn, Route 37 East, Toms River. The luncheon is open to the OCBA members, their guests, and members of the media.

Lisa McComsey, president of OCBA and a partner in Flying Turtle Marketing, Toms River, says, “Giving the Champion of the Year award is not intended to be a political endorsement; but, rather, an opportunity to recognize distinguished citizens of New Jersey for their contributions to the business community.”

Levin, chairman of the Champion of the Year award committee, says, “Because OCBA is an organization for business owners and corporate decision makers, we decided to honor a distinguished citizen of New Jersey who contributes to the growth and development of business in the state. Christie was the committee’s first choice because of his pro business work while he was a U.S. attorney.”

For further information or to become a “guest” of OCBA, contact Harry Jay Levin at 732-240-0909.

About OCBA

Founded in 1980, the OCBA (Ocean County Business Association) is an organization for business owners and corporate decision makers that meets twice a month to network, exchange leads and referrals, and learn about member businesses. OCBA sponsors a traveling speakers' bureau and publishes the biannual Best in Business magazine, which is distributed throughout Ocean County. For further information call 866-606-OCBA (6222) or visit www.OceanCountyBusinessAssociation.com.
